MASSACRE BY SYSTEM.

Our telegraphic dispatches on Saturday contained a brief announcement that an attempt had been made to assassinate Gov. Curtin and Gen. Geary, the present and prospective chief magistrates of this Commonwealth. It appears that the Governor and the General had been to York to attend a Republican Soldiers' Pic-nic, and that on their return the railway coach which contained them received a volley of bullets and brick-bats from the hands of persons lying in ambush. That the destruction of these distinguished personages was the object of the firing, is sufficiently manifest; but it will be observed that this attempt at assassination exceeds in cowardliness and malignity most of those recorded in the history of any age or country, in that the men engaged in it lay concealed, and fired into a considerable collection of men and women, against the great majority of whom it is not conceivable they held any rancor. They were ready to peril the lives of any individuals for even a chance to kill the persons towards whom they were envenomed. It is possible this attempt originated exclusively in the minds of the men who put it into execution; but this is not perfectly clear. The course of the President and his advisers, constitutional and personal, in reference to the New Orleans massacre, was such as to instigate and encourage any kind and degree of violence towards loyal men in all parts of the country. It was a sort of Presidential warrant that loyal men who refused to sanction the Executive Policy, might be butchered on small pretexts or none whatever.

But there are other considerations which connect the Administration, as the instigating power, with this transaction. Mr. MONTGOMERY BLAIR is an intimate friend and confidant of the President. For months past, it has been his habit, standing in the rotunda and passages of the Capitol to predict and applaud the on-coming of a new war, in which the two geographical sections of the country should not be principals, but in which the two great political parties should be arrayed in bloody antagonism, in all sections. In his recent speech before the Democratic mass meeting at Reading he brought this idea out with startling vividness. At New Orleans and York Mr. BLAIR's prognosis has been fully exemplified, in both cases the supporters of the President attempting massacre—in one accomplishing it.

It is time the loyal men of the nation understood that these instances were not casual and unpremeditated, but parts of a system; that the design is to introduce a Reign of Terror, in which the dictates of Reason and the inculcations of the Moral sentiments shall be overborne by Brute Force. This is not an anomalous manifestation of that element which is known as Conservatism; but its normal manifestation, as numerous historic examples demonstrate. What, then, shall be done? Shall violence be responded to by violence? massacre by massacre? That would be to fulfill and complete the desires of the conspirators, whose chosen path runs through anarchy to despotism. A better thing remains; which is, by appeals to the Common Sense and Common Humanity of the People, to hold in loyal hands the governments of the States that remained true to the Flag throughout the war. Thus, and thus only, shall we escape the anarchy of Mexico on the one hand, or the despotism of Austria on the other.

INDIANA.—The Republican nominations for Congress are all made, thus:

First District—General William Harrow, of Evansville. Second District—General W. O. Gresham, of New Albany. Third District—General Morton C. Hunter, of Bloomington. Fourth District—General Ira G. Grover, of Greensburg. Fifth District—George W. Julian, of Centreville. Sixth District—General John Coburn, of Indianapolis. Seventh District—General Henry D. Washburn, of Newport. Eighth District—Godlove S. Orth, of Lafayette. Ninth District—Schuyler Colfax, of South Bend. Tenth District—Major William Williams, of Warsaw. Eleventh District—General J. P. C. Shanks, of Jay C. H.

Of these Messrs. Colfax, Julian and Orth are the present incumbents. The rest are all true men and gallant soldiers, and there is not a doughface or a doubtful toady among the whole lot. The two-faced gentlemen have been sent to the rear in disgrace.

MR. W. W. KETCHUM, it is now stated, will again be the Republican candidate for Congress in the 12th district, composed of Luzerne and Susquehanna counties. In the 13th district, composed of Bradford, Columbia, Montour, Sullivan and Wyoming, the Republican conferees will be chosen on the 27th, but Judge MERCUR will surely be renominated.

LAST Friday Governor Dennison, of Ohio, made a speech at Columbus, telling why he left the Cabinet. The reasons assigned are solid and abundant. The wonder is they were so long in producing their natural effect. But, "better late than never."

THE late Dr. Doolie was the first of the loyal citizens of New Orleans to board the Union fleet after the capture of the city in 1863, and declare his devotion to the flag. No wonder the Democratic journals call him a malignant fanatic, who was unfit to live.

THE St. Louis Republican having published General Sherman's name among the list of speakers at a recent Conservative Rebel meeting in that city, the General responds in a card indignantly denying that he trains in any such crowd.

THREE months ago Napoleon III. was generally accepted as the foremost statesman in Europe. His pre-eminence, since then, has suffered an eclipse. Bismark now stands confessedly the ablest public man on that continent.

IN the late Delaware County Republican Convention Mr. Stevens received 73 for United States Senator, and Mr. Curtin 53.

The Erie Gazette declares for Mr. Stevens.

THE Republican Executive Committee of Ohio have made arrangements for an active campaign, and the good work has already been commenced.

THE Adams County Republican Convention expressed a strong preference for Governor Curtin for United States Senator.

IN the 16th District John McDowell Sharp, of Chambersburg, is the Democratic candidate for Congress.

Over eleven newspapers are now published in Mexico.

MEXICO.

NEW YORK, August 11.—It is reported that a vessel laden with arms and ammunition for the Liberal army in Mexico sailed from the port of Baltimore a few days since.

A correspondence between General Santa Anna and Minister Romero is published, in which the former, under date of May 21, offers his services in behalf of the Republic, and tenders to Juarez his aid and respect. The reply of Senor Romero is caustic in alluding to the part taken by Santa Anna in inviting French intervention. He adds: "All these circumstances render it a difficult question, in my judgment, to decide whether it would be for the interest of our country that your services should be accepted or not."

The Juarez Minister for foreign affairs replies at length to some effect and closes as follows: "For these considerations the President of the Republic does not believe it in any manner compatible with his duty to admit the offer which Senor Santa Anna has now sought to make of his services, nor does he believe that its manifestations or protests of patriotism can be in any manner considered as sufficient to relieve him from the very grave charges which exist against him."

Recent news from Tampico states that the French, expecting the Mexican General Lauredrid, relieved him from the command of Tampico, which was entrusted to a French officer. The French had received a small reinforcement from Vera Cruz by water.

General Carvajal had organized at Matamoras an expedition, fifteen hundred strong, with a view to capture Tampico. General Carsea was to have the command.

President Juarez has organized another expedition at Chihuahua to capture the neighboring city of Durano.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Reported Riot at Heena—Resignations and Appointments.

WASHINGTON, August 11.—The President has ordered a full investigation of the reported riot at Helena, Arkansas. The only information received here of it is that contained in the Associate Press dispatch. The Freedmen's Bureau Agent for Arkansas and the Indian Territory, calls for rations for thirty-five thousand whites, and five thousand freedmen.

Information has been received from Indian Agents in Montana, that satisfactory treaties have been made with tribes of Indians in the upper country.

Joseph Wilson has been put in charge of the General Land Office. He was chief clerk in the Department.

Over twenty of the most efficient and essential clerks in the Treasury Department have tendered their resignations, owing to the doubts as the twenty per cent. increase in their salaries.

Two regiments of colored cavalry are to be retained in the service.

General Howard, Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, has written a letter in reply to some inquiries made by the Hon. Rosewell Hart, M. C., from New York, concerning the operations of the Freedmen's Bureau. The general describes the organization and work of the bureau, giving the statistics from June, 1865, to June, 1866. From these it appears that the number of persons receiving rations are decreasing, and that the poor whites generally upon the government bounty are equal in number to the blacks. The letter closes with the opinion that in the present condition of affairs the bureau is indispensible.

THE CHOLERA.

NEW YORK, August 11.—But two or three new cases of cholera in the city were reported this morning. One or two deaths have occurred (of persons whose cases are reported) yesterday. The cholera reports for yesterday showed the same decrease that was observed the day before. There were ten deaths from previously reported cases, and nine new cases. In Brooklyn there was also a decrease, there being eleven new cases and four deaths. On the Island the condition was favorable.

NEW ORLEANS, August 11.—Twenty-five deaths from cholera for the twenty-four hours ending at six o'clock this morning. Physicians pronounce it Asiatic in its worst form. The disease is principally confined to negroes in uncleanly parts of the city.

ST. LOUIS, August 11.—There were twenty-six cases of cholera reported at the Board of Health office within the twenty-four hours ending at 9 o'clock, six of which proved fatal.

The report of the Health Officer of Philadelphia shows that the number of deaths from cholera during the week was fifty-two. The total number of deaths during the week was four hundred and fifty-one.

Internal Revenue Decision Concerning Auction Sales—Collector Appointed—Internal Revenue Receipts—Treasury Disbursements—Requisition for Surgeons.

WASHINGTON, August 11.—The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has written the following respecting the tax upon auction sales prior to the date of the law act of July 13th, 1866. It was held that sales made by auctioneers for internal or executive officers, or for executors and administrators, were liable to tax in the same manner as sales made for otherpersons. The law has been amended, and it is now held that sales of auctioneers made for or on account of the persons or offices above specified are not liable to tax since August 1st, the time when the above tax takes effect.

Calvin E. Pratt has been appointed Collector of Internal revenue for the Third District, Brooklyn, New York, vice Bowen, removed.

The receipts for internal revenue for the week ending to-day, were over seven million nine hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

The disbursements of the treasury, on account of the War, Navy and Interior Department, in the week ending to-day, are as follows: War Department, $554,749; Navy Department, $775,814; Interior Department, $381,234.

Major General Baird, Assistant Commissioner of Freedmen's Affairs for Louisiana, telegraphs to the Commissioner to have two additional surgeons detailed for duty in New Orleans, with as little delay as possible. It is thought the requisition is made for the purpose of meeting any necessity which may arise out of the prevalence of the cholera in that city.

PHILADELPHIA, August 11.—A man calling himself Champion, late an engineer in the navy, was arrested on the charge of killing a girl in a house of ill-fame, last night. The victim's name is Mary A. Carney, a native of Mount Holly, New Jersey. This morning a female associate of Mary Carney described to the police the man who kept company with her. The description tallied with that given by the keeper of the house. A portrait of a man was found in Mary Carney's trunk, which was identified as Champion's. He was immediately arrested while in bed at his residence, and has been identified as the man who came to the house with the murdered girl. He is now before the Coroner.

SECOND DISPATCH.

PHILADELPHIA, August 11.—The alleged murderer of the woman in the bagnio is named Newton Champion. He is an ex-assistant engineer in the navy, and was more recently employed in the gas works in this city. He has long been identified by the sister of the deceased and others as keeping company with Mary Carney. For several weeks past he has quarrelled with her frequently. Two weeks since he attempted to strangle her. He displayed no emotion on being identified by the keeper of the bagnio.

Canada—Passage of the Financial Tariff Bill.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—The Herald's Ottowa special says: The tariff bill and the financial scheme both passed Parliament in a modified form.

Discussing the American fishery question, the Attorney General said the concession recently made to the American fishermen was necessary to prevent war with the United States. Mr. Brown said he would prefer war to making the concession. Mr. Doctor said the fortifications erected for the security of Canada against invasion from the United States were useless, and their erection nothing but folly.

A request has been sent to the English government by the Atlantic Cable for a supply of the new breech-loading Enfield rifles, which would, no doubt, be forwarded immediately.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12.—The official returns of the Health Board for yesterday, show a highly gratifying decrease in cholera in this city. There were three new cases reported in New York. It is believed that the cholera will not assume the form of an epidemic this summer. The mortality report for the week will not exceed, it is believed, eight hundred deaths from all causes. There were nine deaths from cholera during the previous twenty-four hours at the public institutions. There have been twenty-eight cases and eleven deaths officially reported in Brooklyn since the last publication. There was a slight increase in the number of sick on Governor's Island yesterday.

The health of the troops on David's Island is considered excellent.

The detective quarrel, which was opened a few days since by the publication of charges against metropolitans, still rages. Vallandigham arrived to-day. The two delegations from Louisiana, headed by Cuthbert and Wells, have harmonized and arranged all differences and rivalry. The excitement is increasing rapidly. This evening the Continental Hotel and Girard House, and the street between, were completely blockaded by the crowd. Much discussion was going on, some declaring that Vallandigham and the party he represented should not enter the Convention. Fernando Wood insists vehemently that they shall be admitted without question.

A caucus of the southern delegates will be held in the morning to decide the course to be pursued toward northern delegates. Arrangements for the press have been made as perfect as possible, and all legitimate representatives of journals can procure their cards by applying to S. A. Wheiley, room 137 Continental Hotel. The members of the press will occupy seats in front of the stand and in the surgical theatre adjoining it.

The Board of Health reports forty-three cases of cholera and nine deaths for the week ending yesterday. The deaths have almost disappeared within the last two days.

About three hundred delegates to the Convention have so far registered their names on the book. The Executive Committee, mostly from the South, and a few from the New England States have yet arrived. They are expected to-morrow. No agreement is yet made to a temporary organization. A meeting of the Executive Committee will be held to-morrow afternoon, when it is supposed that an arrangement will be settled. Mr. Ashman is still favorably spoken of as a candidate for President of the Convention. Arrangements between the delegates are progressing favorably, and it is believed at headquarters that a harmonious adjustment of difficulties between the delegates will be made.

"One by One."

The following beautiful lines were recited by Rev. Dr. MCLEAN, member of the U. S. General Assembly, in concluding a brilliant sermon recently delivered by him at Rev. Dr. Jacobus' church, in this city:

"They are gathering home from every land,
One by one,
As their weary feet touch the golden strand,
One by one.
Their brows are encircled in a golden crown;
Their travel-stained garments are all laid down,
And clothed in white raiment they rest on the mead,
Where the Lamb loveth his children to lead,
One by one.

"Before they rest they pass through the strife,
One by one;
Through the waters of death they enter life,
One by one;
To some are the floods on the river still,
As the pilgrim glides down to the heavenly hill;
To others the waves run fiercely wild,
Yet all reach the home of the undefiled,
One by one.

"We, too, shall come to that river side,
One by one;
We are nearer its waters each eventide,
One by one.
We can hear the noise and dash of the stream,
Now and again through our life's deep dream;
Sometimes the floods all its banks o'erflow,
Sometimes in ripples the small waves go,
One by one.

"Jesus, Redeemer, we look to thee,
One by one.
We lift up our voices tremblingly,
One by one;
The waves of the river are dark and cold;
We know not the path we must tread, we fold;
Those who didst pass through in deep midnight,
Strengthen us, send us thy staff and thy light,
One by one.

"Plant thou thy feet beside as we tread,
Oh, by one;
On thee let us lean each drooping head,
One by one.
Let but thy strong arm around us be twined,
We shall cast all our cares and fears to the wind.
Saviour, Redeemer, be thou in full view,
Smilingly, gladsomely, shall we pass through,
One by one."

Future Households.

We sometimes catch ourselves wondering how many of the young ladies whom we meet with are to perform the part of housekeepers, when the young men who court them so unflaggingly are persuaded them to become their wives. We listen to those young ladies of whom we speak, and find them not only acknowledging, but boasting of their ignorance of all household duties, as if nothing would so lower them in the estimation of their friends, as the confession of an ability to bake bread and pies, or cook a piece of meat, or a disposition to engage in any useful employment. Speaking from our own youthful recollections, we are free to say that taper fingers and lily hands are very pretty things in their way, but that a pair of plump and delicate people must live on cooked or otherwise food, and the house be kept clean and tidy, by industrious hands. And for all the practical purpose of married life, it is generally found that for a husband to sit and gaze at his wife's taper fingers and lily hands, or for a wife to sit and be locked at and admired, does not make the pot boil, or put the smallest piece of food therein.

Liberty—A. H. Gross, Jno. Barton—for Negley.

In East Birmingham the Moorhead delegates were elected.

—As will be observed General Moorhead carries a large majority of the delegates, and will probably be nominated. The Convention will be composed of ninety-four delegates, and forty-eight will nominate. As far as heard from, Moorhead has forty-four and Negley twelve.

A Sunday Scene.

Sunday evening, about six o'clock, three respectable looking young men were seated at the Wylie street entrance to the German Lutheran Church, corner of High and Wylie streets. Presently a drunken fellow came reeling along from High street, and intruded an abusive and unprovoked conversation upon them. One of the party mildly suggested that he might as well pass on, whereupon he pulled off his coat and seized the young man who had spoken to him by the hair and struck him. The second party rose and floored his opponent. Forthwith, from the dens and slums of High street, a party of roughs assembled, and, with a yell, from High to Wylie Tunnel streets, mothers with babies in arms, scores of boys and girls filed along, enjoying the sport. Some half dozen tussles now followed, during which the drunken rowdy was put on his back. Finally the young man who had been so shamefully outraged, and who had throughout seemed anxious to avoid the row, disappeared in the alley. The crawl continued for more than half an hour, yet no policeman appeared then nor at any time for hours afterwards. Great are the ubiquitous police.

An Attempt to Rape an Old Woman.

An old lady named Margret Williams, who, from her appearance, has seen a full half century go by, appeared at the office of Alderman Johns, on Saturday, and made an information against Thomas Morgan, a saloon keeper in the Fifth ward, for assault and battery with intent to commit a rape. Mrs. Williams was employed at Morgan's house, at the time of the occurrence, as general housekeeper, and testified that while she was attending to her duties, Morgan entered a chamber in which she was engaged at work, and made the assault referred to. Her struggles prevented him from consummating his foul design, and leaving her at length in a helpless condition, he locked the door of the room, and putting the key in his pocket, kept her a prisoner for six hours. As soon as she was released, she repaired to the magistrate's office and made the information. Morgan was arrested by officer Thomas, but was released on giving bail for a hearing on Saturday next.

The Cholera is Coming.

The cholera will certainly pay our city a visit before many days and all have passed away. We can see no way of escaping the dread scourge which has already hemmed us in upon all sides. Again we raise the voice of warning, urging all to be prepared for the terrible visitation. Avoid the green truck which has found its way into our markets, live temperately, form regular habits, and do all within your power to improve the sanitary condition of your own and neighbor's premises. Excepting a few isolated cases of sudden death attributed to cholera, an [illegible] of cases brought from abroad, we have not yet had the disease here, and possibly may escape its most virulent form altogether, but people will not come to come alive to their danger. A glance at our telegraph columns should be enough to prove the imminent peril we are in, and we do hope the citizens will calmly inaugurate a general cleaning up and sanitary reform.

A Feminine War.

The quiet of that delectable quarter of our city known only to policemen and tax collectors, Church alley, was disturbed on Saturday morning by a trio named Harriet Hennington, Sarah Loughrey and Kate Hennington, who, in order to satisfy their feelings of revenge, engendered by a previous dispute, indulged in a free fight. The result was the two Henningtons gave Miss Loughrey quite a thrashing, while the personnel of Miss Kate Hennington was damaged by the addition of a large bump beneath the right eye, which lends to her optic a sombre hue. Becoming disgusted with pugilism, they transferred their conflict to the office of Alderman Humbert, and invoked the aid of the statute laws to settle the imbroglio. Sarah was fined in three hundred dollars to keep the peace, while the Misses Hennington were fined ten dollars each for disorderly conduct.

Change of Firm.

The old and favorably known firm of J. Y. M'Laughlin & Co., 138 Liberty street, has been discontinued, the business falling into the hands of William F. M'Laughlin, who has, for a number of years, been the business manager of the late firm. The new proprietor has greatly enlarged his facilities for doing business, and it is to be hoped that the liberal amount of patronage extended to the old firm will be continued with him. He deals extensively in all descriptions of pain and [illegible] oils, &c., &c., and has placed his prices upon such a low scale as to make it advantageous to the purchaser to favor him with his patronage. Mr. M'Laughlin is a courteous young business man, and in every respect worthy of the confidence of the community.

Row in the Eighth Ward.

A disgraceful row occurred at the Eighth ward polls, on Saturday evening, about seven o'clock, occasioned by several rowdies attempting to prevent the officers from closing the window through which the ballots were taken, at the hour designated in the call of the County Executive Committee. In the melee several men were knocked down and roughly handled, while one of the special police, in endeavoring to perform his duty, was struck on the head with a boulder, inflicting a wound of some two or three inches in extent, from which the blood flowed profusely. During the fracas no saw knives, and in one instance a pistol, brandished, but in no case was they used. Save a small boy, none were arrested.

Important Meeting.—There will be a very important meeting of the Petty Committee of the Private Reform Association of Allegheny county, held this morning at nine o'clock, in the lecture room of the First Presbyterian Church, Wood street. Every member is urged to be in attendance as business of importance will be transacted. Ladies anxious or willing to co-operate with the Association in ministering to the physical or spiritual wants of female prisoners, are respectfully invited to leave their address with any member of the Visiting Committee.

Sale of Lots.—To-morrow morning at ten o'clock there will be disposed of at public auction, some fifty choice lots of ground adjoining the beautiful little town of Mansfield on Chartiers creek, a short distance from the city. We know of no more inviting spot for a home than this place presents, and all persons desiring to purchase rare building sites should be on hand to-day at the sales. By reference to our advertising columns further particulars may be obtained.

A Wordy Contest.—While the delegate election was progressing in the Sixth ward, a well known medical practicioner engaged in a wordy warfare with a citizen of the ward. The language used was of the most abusive character, and would have done credit to Billingsgate. The combatants, both of two highly educated and refined gentlemen, such as the belligerents are. Gentlemen, we are ashamed of you.

Accidental Death.—John Knapfer, a one armed man, pedlar by occupation, was fatally injured on Friday night, but by falling down a stairway at Rough Parley's tavern, on Ohio street, Allegheny. Coroner Clawson held an inquest on Saturday, the jury rendering a verdict of "accidental death."

Meets To-day.—The United States Circuit Court—special term—assembles to-day.

"National Union" Meeting—Speeches of Hon. H. A. Weaver, J. H. Sawyer, Col. Kerr and Ex-Gov. Johnston

The "National Union Party" of this city held a public meeting at the counting-room of the Daily Republic, on Fifth street, on Saturday night. The turnout was by no means so large as was anticipated, there being hardly one hundred persons in attendance. The meeting was called to order by B. C. Sawyer, Esq., editor of the Republic, who nominated James W. Kennedy, Esq., of Manchester, as President, and Hon. Henry A. Weaver, U. S. Assessor for this District, and A. L. Robinson, Esq., Vice Presidents, and the reporters of the press as Secretaries. The officers nominated were unanimously elected by the meeting, and assumed their places upon the platform.

Hon Henry A. Weaver, being loudly called upon for a speech, briefly addressed the audience. He stated that he had been an Andy Johnson man from the very beginning, and did not desire to remain in the equivocal position of carrying water upon both shoulders. He instanced the President and viewed the present as a crisis in the political history of our country, and all Union men should stand [illegible] never been afforded an opportunity of thus expressing himself as a Johnson man, and now characterized and conscientiously he proclaimed himself as such.

Mr. Weaver's speech was received with wild applause from the audience, which we might truthfully say was composed of sixty Democrats to forty Republicans.

Mr. J. H. Sawyer was next called upon and made a rambling speech in which he indulged in language unbecoming one recognized as the head and front of the new political organization.

Hon. Wm. F. Johnston next mounted the rostrum and in a calm and dignified manner reviewed the condition of national affairs and the position the President had taken. He lauded the Democratic party and almost forgot himself so far as to proclaim that organization the patriotic one during the dark hour of the rebellion. He announced his intention of taking the stump for Clymer in the present campaign.

Col. James K. Kerr also addressed the meeting at some length. He denounced the Radical leaders and proclaimed that before the first of next January a new and more terrible civil war than the one we have just closed will be inaugurated. He was anxious to know why the negroes were being armed

TOURING EXTRAORDINARY.

Mr. J. McGREGOR had witnessed various experiments resorted to by English gentlemen of wealth and leisure, to break up the monotony of travel. One had tried a locomotive adapted to ordinary carriage roads. A second had started on a summer trip with four-in-hand and two spare horses. A third had wandered over continental Europe in a velocipede. He conceived the idea of traveling in a canoe. He had one made, just long enough not to exclude it from transportation cars, and so light that two persons could carry it as one man could an ordinary valise. It was fifteen feet long, twenty-eight inches broad, and nine inches deep. Weight, eighty pounds. It drew three inches of water, with an inch of keel. A paddle, seven feet long, with a blade at each end, and a lug-sail and gib, were the only means of propulsion. It carried only himself, and his baggage, a black bag, one foot square and five inches deep.

This boat he took by railroad as near as possible to the head of the river he had determined to descend. Sometimes he would employ a wagon to carry it from the railroad station to some point still further up the stream; for it must be remembered that water sufficient to float this boat would always be found far above the common termination of navigation. Having reached almost the fountain of a great river, the Rhine, for instance, he launched his boat, took his seat, with his scanty baggage between his feet, and sped away with the current. Entering still water, if the wind favored he spread his sail; if not, he brought the paddle into use. When weary either of labor or sight-seeing, he reposed under the shadow of a great rock or of overhanging trees. Meals he obtained of inhabitants along the streams, and lodgings for the night he procured in the nearest hamlet or cottage. Indeed, as his was a summer cruise, almost any shelter was sufficient. The sensation experienced in descending sharp rapids he describes as not unlike that felt in a swing of long vibrations. Two or three times he was in imminent danger of going over high dams or falls, where he must inevitably have been drowned, but was withheld by timely cautions by persons on shore, who knew his danger, hailed him in a language he did not understand, but made him comprehend by the cosmopolitan medium of signs.

Dams not over four feet high he found to be perfectly practicable. When higher than that he took the boat out and drew it around. At night, for security, he had it locked up in a barn or other building.

In this way a river one thousand miles long was traversed with little effort, and a succession of delights. In addition to the enjoyment of scenery, apart from the bustle and noise of steamboats and railway carriages, on the higher portions of streams particularly, great pleasure as well as profit was experienced in the opportunities of coming in contact with rural populations, in all the primitive simplicity, observing their manner of life and the progression, or want of progression, of their ideas.

Having reached tide-water, nothing remained but to resort once more to the railroad, and gain the head of another stream. In this manner, in the course of a summer's recreation, he managed to explore, comprehensively, five of the longest and most celebrated rivers of continental Europe.

In 1844, a party of enthusiastic Whigs, wishing to attend the Baltimore National Convention, which nominated Mr. HENRY CLAY for the Presidency, determined to perform a feat not often accomplished—that is, to combine pleasure and politics. They lived in the State of New York, near the head-waters of the North Branch of the Susquehanna river. They built an ark, and arranged it with different compartments, in imitation of a canal packet-boat. They engaged a band of music, a glee club, pilots, cooks, and whatever else they deemed essential. Down the river they floated, stopping nights, and sometimes by day-light, to hold political meetings. Arriving at Port Deposit, a steamer took the ark in tow to Baltimore. One of these tourist, years afterwards, assured me this was the merriest and the most satisfactory trip he ever made.

Mr. MACGREGOR was more select. He wanted no company but his own. A companion would have marred the landscape, and the harmonious clamor of a band would have hushed for his ear the multitudinous voices of nature. He had been surfeited with men in London. He desired to get away for awhile from all that could remind him, even by association, of the crowded metropolis, to view the world under other and altogether different aspects, communing meantime with his own thoughts.

He has written a book narrating his experiences, giving sketches of the scenery through which he floated as in pleasant dreams, and depicting the manners and pursuits of the people with whom he came more or less in contact. He has performed his task in a genial and charming style showing that though he chose no sharer o his pastime, his mind was in a social mood, lighted up with gorgeous pictures and overflowed with gayest reveries.

GEN. H. W. SLOCUM, a clear-headed soldier and thick-headed politician, said in a recent speech:

"When the President announced the terms and conditions upon which he was willing to restore to the Southern people their former rights and privileges, and these people cheerfully accepted and complied with each and every one of his conditions, we certainly had reason to look for the immediate restoration of the Union."

The General seems to be of the opinion that the President owns the Government, and wears a crown. Some other gentleman have lost their balance in consequence of the same infatuation.

POLITICAL PROSPECTS.

The aspect of the canvass in Pennsylvania is most encouraging. Recent events have powerfully contributed to unite Republicans of various shades of opinion, in a common purpose. No reasonable doubt remains of the election of General GEARY by a majority of thirty thousand. It is reduced almost to an absolute certainty that the Republicans will lose none of the Congressional districts they carried two years ago; and fair prospects exist for their carrying one or two districts that they lost then. A majority in each branch of the Legislature may confidently be depended on; so that the political complexion of the United States Senator to be chosen as Mr. COWAN's successor, would seem not to admit of debate. The omens are decidedly good. Republicans! close up your ranks and march forward to the grand consummation.

THE renomination of the Hon. THOMAS WILLIAMS for Congress in the 23d district is a merited tribute to eminent ability and staunch devotion to principle. The action, moreover, of the Conference by which the renomination was made, is worthy of satisfactory in another respect. There was no divided opinion on the grave issues involved in the present canvass, and no hesitancy in declaring the strongest sentiments.

The course of Mr. MCJUNKIN in this whole matter is deserving of much commendation. An earnest and able man, his friends naturally enough desired to place him in Congress. But he deported himself throughout with a nice sense of honor and scrupulous adherence to his professed principles and those of the Republican party.

It is apparent that no defection exists in the district; that all the calculations of the democrats and conservatives based on existing or expected alienations, are doomed to disappointment; and that the republicans will present, on the day of election, as compact a front, and roll up a majority as formidable as on any previous occasion.

On Thursday of last week the Republican soldiers of York county held a pic-nic in the grove near the borough of York. Full ten thousand people were present, and everybody was sumptuously fed at the immense tables. A large dancing platform was erected, on which the "boys in blue" tripped it on the light fantastic toe with the girls in blue.

Gen. JOHN W. GEARY, the Republican candidate for Governor, made a brief speech in support of Congress and its proposed amendments, and warmly sympathized with all oppressed nationalities and people struggling for a nobler form of government, including Ireland.

Gov. CURTIN next spoke. His utterances came fully up to the requirements of the national emergency. We give only the salient points:

THE CRISIS.

"We are at peace; we are blessed with health and prosperity, we have just garnered our crops, which have been bounteous; we have no immediate State issue before the people of Pennsylvania, to attract us here in such vast multitudes, and yet the people have poured out in great numbers, and why? You are here to-day because every man in my presence instinctively feels that something is wrong—this the true lessons of this bloody struggle that has just past have not been faithfully carried out. We expended $3,000,000 of treasure, and 300,000 of our bravest sons went forth to battle. There are hecatombs of our dead, and the taxes on the people are yet a burden. We were mysteriously guided through that dreadful struggle. Let us teach those who rule us, by the omnipotent ballot, that the institutions of our Government must be carried out in their original purity. There have been symptoms of insurrection and examples of violence. There are bloody murders and persecutions which lead you all to fear that war may not be closed. I conjure you to take care that all the blood and treasure you have spent may not go for nothing."

THE CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS.

Congress has presented to us for our action certain amendments to the National Constitution. During Lincoln's administration, we had the amendments excluding forever the black stain of slavery, and, thank God for that! It was a curse and a blight on the nation, now happily removed, and why should we not sanction the new amendments? Are not their provisions fair? If it be the pleasure of the people in the South to adopt universal suffrage, they can have it. If not, they need not have it. But we want an equitable basis of representation North and South. Democrats talk so much about negro suffrage; negroes voting for white men, &c., and they are endeavoring to manufacture capital out of the negro again in Pennsylvania. In our State the Constitution can only be amended, as you all know, once in five years. We have had one amendment but recently. It will be time, therefore, to agitate this question when this gentleman here (Gen. Geary,) runs a second time. How they are agonized about it! They are in great distress because we are everywhere going to allow the negro to vote. I say if the South wants him to vote then come on with your wool. There is no possible objection to it. These Constitutional amendments provide that the government of the United States shall maintain its faith to all its creditors for the public debt incurred during the war, and that not one cent of the rebel debt shall be paid. Put that side by side with the nigger cry. They provide that no men who held office, civil or military, in the rebel service, shall take part in the government of the United States. But they put in a clause by which the Southern State may come in. These men who took part in this rebellion, whose hands are red with the blood of loyal men; God forbid that such men should be allowed to take part in the government.

THE PHILADELPHIA CONVENTION.

I can class those in Pennsylvania who opposed the recent amendments. They are those who were indifferent and criminal during the war—those who are to take part in that Convention to be held in Philadelphia next week. Then, from away down South, leaders of the Confederate cause, covered with the blood of the innocent, are to come to the City of Brotherly Love to teach men of the North their duty. Alexander H. Stephens joined the Confederate cause, it is said, under protest. He gives as an excuse that he expected to control the Rebellion. He will be there. You might give the same reason for joining a band of horse thieves, and be banded with such men as Montgomery Blair, Hunter, Taylor, &c., who are to tell you what your duty is. [A voice—"You forgot Vallandigham."] I remember well that man Vallandigham. I remember when Lincoln sent him to a foreign country, and when he allowed him to come back. I trust, nay I sincerely hope, they may hold their sessions in peace. I should be extremely sorry to hear any violence offered them. I hope they may be allowed to assemble in their wigwam and then their very quarrels will burst their machine. You might as well have expected our soldiers in front of Richmond to sit in convention with rebels. I say I hope they may be allowed to assemble in peace. I wish they had selected some other place to meet where public sentiment was in their favor.

THE NEW ORLEANS MASSACRE.

"Read the history of the French Revolution and you will find nothing so atrocious as the assault upon and murder of those Union men in New Orleans. My friends, the spirit from hell which induced these proceedings is still alive. I am for increasing the army. If these men will not be obedient they should be compelled. That is the way our boys drove them from their forts and forced their surrender. They were upon their knees in 1865 when the war closed. Now they are arrogant; they murder peaceable citizens, and carry the flag of the rebellion and send delegates to this great State of Pennsylvania to consult on the future of America. It is the bounden duty of us in the loyal States who suppressed the rebellion and freed the negro, to protect him from violence and persecution. It is our duty to say that he shall not be murdered by his former master. Our highest duty resting upon us from the throne of a merciful God is to protect these men."

As the train bearing the Cumberland and Dauphin County delegations was leaving York, those on it were assailed in the most fiendish manner. In a corn field, near the railroad, a hundred or two of sneaking Copperheads had concealed themselves. As the train moved off, pistols were discharged at it, and a perfect shower of stones hailed upon it. The car occupied by Gen. Geary, Gov. Curtin, and a number of ladies, was perforated with bullets. One of the open cars occupied by a large number of soldiers, was also shot at and assailed with stones. For a moment the scene was most fearful and exciting, and had the boys who left the train and pursued the ruffians in the field, taken any prisoners, there would have been more blood spilled in York than when it was surrendered to Early.

Several persons were struck and severely injured by the stones hurled at the train. A young man named Freeburn, son of the proprietor of the Second Ward House, in Harrisburg, was so severely wounded on one of his knees that he had to be carried home on a settee, after the arrival of the train at our depot. Another was severely injured on one of his shoulders, and a third a head was cut open, and still another had an arm injured.

Renomination of Hon. Thomas Williams.

The Republican Conferees of the 23d Congressional District, met at Freeport, on Friday last. All the Conferees appeared, to wit: Thomas F. Dale, S. H. Geyer, Campbell B. Herron, of Allegheny; Darwin Phelps, George B. Sloan, of Armstrong; J. M. Thompson, Amos Lusk, W. Irwin, of Butler. They organized by making Mr. King, Chairman, and Mr. Geyer, of Allegheny, Secretary.

On the first ballot the Conferees from Allegheny and Armstrong voted for the Hon. Thomas Williams, as the candidate for Congress; those from Butler, for Hon. Ebenezer McJunkin.

On motion of Mr. Lusk, seconded by Mr. Irwin, the nomination was made unanimous.

A Committee on Resolutions was named, consisting of Thompson, of Butler, Phelps, of Armstrong, and Dale, of Allegheny, who reported the following:

Resolved, 1.—That we endorse the action of the majority in Congress, and that we have entire faith in their purity, ability and patriotism.

2. That we cordially approve the official course of our present able and eloquent member, the Hon. Thomas Williams.

3. That we congratulate our citizens on the nomination for Governor of Pennsylvania, of that tried and true patriot, fearless soldier and honest man, General John W. Geary.

4. That our soldiers and sailors who fought the battles of freedom, deserve our lasting gratitude, and that provision should be made by Congress, to equalize bounties, and to extend aid in a proper manner to the families of those who lost their lives, in the suppression of the rebellion.

5. That the recreant conduct of the accidental President (Andrew Johnson,) meets our stern condemnation, and we denounce his conduct in his treatment of rebels as an insult to loyal men, a violation of all pledges made to the country, and in contradiction to his own professed loyalty.

What Came of Altering a Garment.

Justice Miller committed Eunice Clare to jail on saturday, on a charge of malicious mischief preferred against her by Benjamin F. Neebold. It appears that Eunice was employed as a domestic in the family of Mr. Neebold, whose wife is absent at present on a visit to some friends in the West. Taking advantage of this absence Eunice sought to replenish her wardrobe out of that of her mistress, and accordingly appropriated to her use a calico dress and a merino sack, robed in which she proceeded about her household chores as usual. The sack did not fit Eunice as neat as she would desire it, and taking a pair of scissors she altered the garment to suit her fastidious taste. The alteration did not please Mr. Neebold—who, unfortunately, is compelled to furnish his wife's apparel out of a limited exchequer—and he remonstrated with Eunice, who answered in rather an impertinent way, "that she didn't care whether he liked the arrangement or not." Indignant at the manner in which his remonstrance had been treated, Neebold made an information against Eunice, and she was dealt with as stated.

Broke Jail.

Charles Mitchell, alias Robert Paxton, and Forbs Cannon, two of the railroad thieves, broke jail at Greensburg day before yesterday, by getting down into the vault of the privy and following the sewer up to the vault of the public privy at the Court-house, where they got out through a ventilator. They were immediately missed and the alarm given, but they succeeded in getting out of the town. They were, however, retaken near George's Station, some three miles distant from Greensburg, at 9 P. M. the same day by the railroad division force, and returned to prison. Five hours in the open air was hardly an equivalent for the fifteen months they passed in the vault, or would not be to any one of delicate organism. They took one beneficial precaution, that of stuffing the clothes of their fellow prisoners and doubling and crawling out of the outside suits when on terra firma thus shutting up the smellers of the officers to some extent at least.

Information Wanted.

Nelson Messick, of Manchester, Allegheny county, Pennsylvania, left his home in March last to go to Petroleum Centre, and has not since that time been heard from. He took with him a tool chest, well filled with tools, having his name on them. As very grave apprehensions are entertained respecting him, any information concerning him since March, or about his tool chest or tools, would be very gratefully received by his very much distressed family. Any one having such news to communicate will please address,

LUCINDA MESSICK,
West Manchester, Allegheny county, Pa.

We Call Attention to the advertisement in our columns to-day, of O. S. Baker & Co., of Washington, District of Columbia, and bespeak for it the consideration of all who may be interested in the business which that firm is engaged in. Messrs. Baker & Co., are now procuring the additional pensions, equalization bounty, and three months' pay proper, allowed to widows, heirs, soldiers and officers of the army by the recent acts of Congress, and having in their firm two officers, late in the United states army, they are enabled to collect for unusual facilities in procuring all such claims; while their charges are but about one-half of what is usually charged in such cases. Their charges are only for obtaining pension, equalization bounty, or any claim of that nature. The members of the 155th, 158th the 56th and other Pennsylvania Regiments, will do well to bear in mind that Major Simpson, their Paymaster, is a member of this firm and will be able to render the officers and men great assistance in procuring their claims from the profound knowledge and familiarity with them and their papers and rolls. Address O. S. Baker & Co., Washington, D. C., and you will obtain all the information and assistance you require.

Another Big Snake Story.—A few days since we mentioned the fact of a large snake, measuring nine feet, having been killed on Squirrel Hill, in Peebles township. Since then we have learned of the killing of a still larger reptile on the Turtle Farm, in the village of Mount Pleasant, Jefferson county, Ohio. The snake was discovered by two young men while reaping in a wheat field. On their approach it showed fight, and it was with the utmost difficulty that it was at length killed. On measurement it was found to be eleven feet long and fifteen inches in circumference. Can some erudite student of natural history tell us to what particular reptile family this monster belongs?

A Politician in Durance.—Jeremiah Coulter resides in Peebles township, near the four mile run. In the excitement consequent on the late election on Saturday, Jeremiah grew hilarious, and in many loud and prolonged howls he showed his appreciation for the gallant Negley. Meeting a friend who expressed a hope in favor of Mr. Moorhead, he joined in a controversy with him on the relative merits of the two candidates. Finding his logic not equal to the occasion, he pitched into his friend and gave him a severe beating. The consequence was, Coulter was sent to jail to quiet his nerves.

Found Drowned.—In the Ohio river, opposite McKee's Rocks, on Sunday morning, the body of a man was found floating. Coroner Clawson held an inquest, but nothing was elicited to identify the deceased. The man was evidently a German, between thirty and thirty five years of age, and was quite respectably dressed—gray coat, and pants—and appeared to have been in the water five or six days. He had a small ring in each ear, and in his clothing was found a pocket-book containing some five dollars in money. Undertaker Devore took charge of and buried the body.

Opinion Delivered.—On Saturday, in the District Court, Judge Hampton delivered an opinion in the matter of Gen. William Robinson, Jr., and the Borough of Manchester, concerning the paving of some six hundred and sixty-two feet of sidewalk. A verdict was rendered in favor of the borough, subject to the opinion of the Court on questions of law reserved. Judge Hampton's decision was in favor of Gen. Robinson, but exceptions were taken, and the case will go to the Supreme Court.

Threatened Mer.—John Price was before Alderman Taylor, on Saturday, charged with surety of the peace on the information of Elitzabeth Jenning. It appears that Price is in the habit of accosting Miss Jenning on the street in an insulting manner, and on one occasion recently threatened to whip her if she would continue to be so impudent. John gave bail for a hearing to-day.

Spit on Her.—Ellen Donovan appeared before Alderman Lynch, on Saturday, and made oath against Jane Allen for assault and battery. The offense consisted in the accused spitting in the face of Ellen, whose sense of decency and propriety was so outraged by the act that nothing but a resort to the law could amend her honor. Jane was held in $300 bail for a hearing to-day.

Arm Broken.—Annie Brown, a little daughter of John Brown, saloon keeper on Diamond alley, broke her arm on Friday by falling from a table. She was nursing a younger sister at the time of the accident, and the latter falling on the member alluded to, caused the fracture. Dr. McCook dressed the wound.

False Pretence.—James Gibson proprietor of the Crystal Palace saloon, on Market street, appeared before Alderman Humbert on Saturday, and charged James Dickey with procuring $10 from him by false and fraudulent representation. A warrant has been issued for the arrest of the accused.

Liquor Sellers' Fined.—Thos. Noble made information against the following named persons for selling liquor on Sunday: Mrs. Murphy, John Murray, Mrs. Keney, Mrs. Feeley and Mrs. Calligan. They were each fined $50 and costs.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article.

GREAT EXCITEMENT PRODUCED.

Ravages of the Cholera in London.

ONE THOUSAND AND FIFTY-THREE CASES IN ONE WEEK.

Russia and the German Question.

SEVERE STORM ON THE ADRIATIC.

Loss of the Italian Ram Affondatore.

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—The morning papers have the following dispatches from Europe, by the cable:

LONDON, Aug. 9.—There is great excitement here this morning, at a supposed attempt to blow up the two Houses of Parliament. Large quantities of gunpowder with a fuse attached were found in the rear of the entrance to the Lord Chamberlain's office in the House of Lords. The members of Parliament have visions of another Guy Fawkes gunpowder plot.

The deaths from cholera in London during the last week were one thousand and fifty-three; and from diarrhœa, three hundred and fifty-four.

BERLIN, August 8.—General Manteuffel having attended a military council, and had a favorable audience of the King, left yesterday on a special mission to St. Petersburg. Referring to it the semi-official journal, the Provincia. Correspondence, of this evening, says: Russia, by her position as a great power, and also on account of her numerous family ties with the German Courts, takes a lively interest in the German question. The relations existing between Russia and Prussia might suggest to Russia the expediency of making confidential communications to the Cabinet in Berlin, in relation to the views entertained by the Czar's government upon the recent steps adopted by Prussia. Any apprehensions respecting the attitude attributed to Russia by certain German journals will, in all probability, speedily prove to be groundless.

The same journal hopes that the Prussian Legislative Chambers, by passing a bill of indemnity, will end the conflict with the government.

The Deputies voted that the order of the Black Eagle be conferred on General Boon and General Baron Moltke.

Yesterday, in the Upper House of the Legislative, a letter was read from the Count of Westphalia, declaring his oath of alliance with the King of Prussia and his duty as a Federal Prince no longer binding on him, since his Majesty has withdrawn from the German Confederation.

The municipal authorities of Berlin have presented an address to the Crown Prince of Prussia, sympathizing with him in his affliction, caused by the death of his infant son, and eulogizing the war, glory, and military achievements in behalf of Prussia, in the part personal to the Prince. The Crown Prince, in returning thanks, points to the joyous prospects about to be realized which would fulfill the just hopes of Prussia and the nation.

FLORENCE, ITALY, August 8.—There was a severe storm in the Adriatic yesterday, by which several vessels of the Italian fleet were damaged. The Italian ram Affondatore was sunk in the port of Ancona. Her crew was saved.

The time of the suspension of hostilities has been prolonged.

The peace negotiations between Austria and Italy will take place at Prague. Count Bairoi and General Monaico will be the Italian plenipotentiaries.

PARIS, August 9.—The Chevaliers Negra and Artoun have returned here. The Emperor expects, it is supposed, partly to retain his connection with the present critical condition of Italian affairs.

The rumor of an increase of the effective strength of the French army in Algeria is denied.

The Empress of Mexico arrived at Saint Nazarre to-day in the Imperial. The steamship Eugenie is going to meet her to-morrow.

Manaco, in Peru, Aug. 2.—The payment of taxes in advance is continued, and the Government expects to balance its accounts with the Bank of Spain before the 15th of September.

The Cholera in Cincinnati—Thirty-eight Fatal Cases on Friday.

CINCINNATI, August 11.—Thirty-eight fatal cases of cholera were reported to the Health Officer yesterday.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

SATURDAY, August 11, 1866.

The New York quotations to-day, as reported by Mr. P. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 143¾; 1881s, 110¾; 5-20s, 109¾; 10-40s, 92¾; 7-30s, 105¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh R. R., 87½; Fort Wayne, 105¾; Erie, 69¾; Michigan Southern, 85½; Western Union Telegraph, 56¾.

—The private letters and later telegrams from London are said to be unfavorable to the restoration of financial confidence and moderate rates of discount at the Bank of England. This trouble, however, is thought to be rather with reference to East India interests than to American. The letters from Frank-on-the-Main represent the exactions and oppression of the Prussian military authorities to have been very severe, though all extreme measures to raise forced loans were frustrated by timely interposition from Berlin.

—The exports, exclusive of specie, from New York for the week ending on the 7th instant, were $3,586,169, against $2,939,555 to same time last year. The imports at the same port for the week were $3,185,814, and for the year to date $121,490,262, against $97,078,378 to same time last year. The exports during little more than seven months of the current year, it will be seen, have increased about 30 per cent., while the imports have more than doubled. This difference is being made up partly by increased exports of gold, and partly by a steady shipment of bonds, at about two-thirds of their face value, which are paid for in manufactured goods. So far from the German war having sent our bonds in Europe home for sale, there is a steady supply of orders on the street for more. There is scarcely an arrival that does not bring orders for more or less of them, the effect of which is seen in a strong and advancing market for all our gold-bearing stocks. The Five Twenties of 1862 are selling at 104¾, and the new of 1865 at 109¾ per cent. The advance in the latter have carried up the Seven Thirties of the first series, which are already convertible into Five Twenties of 1865.

There is rather more activity in the money market to-day than for several days past; but this is due more to the preparations which are being made by country bankers to move the crops, than to any special demand from the city. To-day sales of our leading bankers sent large packages of currency to the interior, and there is every prospect of this drain continuing for some time yet. The demand for money in the city is still very tight, and the market for discounts is steady at 10 per cent per annum for good paper. Interior paper is also nominal on the street at rates equal to 12@15 per cent per month.

Some of the National depositories were called on to-day, and ordered to hand over their balances to the sub-Treasury. This caused an increased supply of eastern exchange, and large lots were sold freely among bankers at 60c premium per thousand. Counter rates were firm at par buying and 1-16 premium selling.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

The produce markets have been unsettled and rather dull during the past week, the movements in most of the leading commodities being very much restricted, while prices have undergone no material change.

GROCERIES—Sugars are firm with a fair jobbing demand but unchanged; we quote at 11 to 11¼ for Molasses Sugars; fair brown do at 12 good, 12@12¼; prime, 13¼@13¾; choice, 13¾@14; hard Refined, 17¾@18; soft do, 16@17. Rio Coffee is quoted at 27 to 28 for goods; prime, 29, and choice 30 to 33c. Muscovado Molasses, 65, and choice Porto Rico, 70 to 90. Crown Syrups are selling at from $1.25 to $1.80; and Oolongs at 85 to $1.50. Syrups range from 75 to $1.25, according to quality.

GRAIN—Wheat is firmer and looking up, though as yet unchanged; we continue to quote at $2.80 to 2.15 for spring, and $2.00@2.50 for red winter. Oats steady with sales of prime white reported at 55@56, on track and elevator. Sale of 150 bush "mixed" from store at 53. Corn is steady and unchanged, being quoted at 75 to 78, on track. No movement in Rye or Barley.

FLOUR—Is firm with a slight improvement in the demand, but as, yet, prices are not quotably higher. We continue to quote at $10 to $10.50 for Spring Wheat; $11 to 11.50 for half Spring and half Winter; and $12 to 12.50 for all Winter. Sale of 200 bbls "Mills springfield" at $12.25. Rye Flour nominal at $8.25 to 8.50, and Cornmeal at $4 per bbl, or $1 per bushel.

PROVISIONS — Bacon is firm and unchanged at 17¾c to 17¾c for Shoulders, 19@19½ for Ribbed Sides, 23 for Plain Hams, and 25@26 for Sugar Cured. Lard is firmer, and prime city may be quoted firm at 22c; some holders asking more. Mess Pork at $33.50.

POTATOES—Quiet but steady and unchanged at $2.75 per bbl, from store.

APPLES—Scarce and in demand, with sales of prime at $4 to $4.50 per bbl.

ROSIN—Very dull, with a supply considerably in excess of the demand. We quote at 17@18.

BUTTER—Is in demand and but little offering. We have sales of packed reported all the way from 25 to 26c, according to quality.

CHEESE—Is steady, with regular sales at 14½ to 15c, for Western Reserve, 16@17 for Hamburg; and 21 for New York Goshen.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

CRUDE—The market for Crude has been steady and moderately active during the past week, and, compared with last week, prices have advanced, on the spot as well as to arrive. Yesterday and to-day, however, the market ruled a little tame, in consequence of a little swell in the Allegheny River, and with a prospect of increased receipts within the next few days, holders were more anxious to realize, and in order to accomplish this pretty liberal concessions were made in some cases. We now quote at 17½@15, bbls returned and in bulk, and 16½@20, bbls included—in the early part of the week there were some few sales of bulk off at 15¾ and 15¼, but at this writing 15 cents may be regarded as the extreme of the market, and we are cognizant of sales and offers to sell on Tuesday and Friday at 14¾@14¾, one firm alone selling four thousand barrels at the last named price. What effect the arrival of fifteen or twenty tanks of crude from the Oil Creek and Titusville district will have on the market it is difficult to conjecture, though usually, and especially at this season of the year, when our refiners are taxed to their utmost capacity, that amount of oil would be a "mere drop in the bucket." The advices from Oil City are conflicting, though it is pretty generally conceived that Crude had declined considerably at the close of this week from the past few days.

REFINED—The demand for bonded oil has been comparatively light for two or three days past, and prices, as compared with the rates current in the early part of the week, are a fraction lower. We can report sales of 500 bbls for immediate delivery in Philadelphia, at 45c; 500 for September, at 43; 500 for October, at 42½, and 125, light straw color, on the spot, at 32. The above appear to be the ruling quotations for the months named; but for November and December there appears to be no buyers, either here or in the east. In the early part of the week, there were sales at 38 for October, free on board cars here; 39 for November, and 40 for December. Free oil is quiet and unchanged.

ARRIVALS—The following are the arrivals of oil since our last report, including both Smith's Ferry and the Venango oil regions:

New York Cattle Market.

NEW YORK, August 11.—Beeves—Five Hundred and forty-one fresh cattle arrived at the Hudson City Drove Yards to-day, making a total of 2367 head at this market since Tuesday. At the National Drove Yards, twenty-one car loads, or between 350 and 400, head been received. As would naturally be expected, this comparatively large supply early in the week has tended to weaken prices; and from our notes of sales, and from a comparison of the views of sellers and buyers, we quite think 1@2c per lb lower than on Monday last. There was considerable activity in the market to-day, and plenty of buyers in the yards at Hudson City, and the general opinion is, that the cattle will be all sold at but a trifle below the prices of last week, speculators who bought in Buffalo lose plenty of money. It is a mistake to suppose that the sales of the speculative operations in beef cattle, that prices can be so firmly sustained as they have been. Every week the butchers' supply is purchased somewhat closely; there is no apprehension of a failure of feed, and no doubt of a large stock of good cattle in the West; yet we find that good beeves sell readily at from 12½@13c per lb.

Sheep and Lambs—Good sheep are not plenty the receipts thus far this week being principally Lambs. Arrivals for the week, 1,840 sheep and lambs on sale at Chamberlin's, and only some 300 lambs at Browning's, was rather firmer for sheep, with a demand for prime wethers at 8½@9c. Lambs in range of 9@10c. Sales at 6½@7½c. For lambs the demand is dull. The quality is inferior, and the supply too large. Nothing in the best selected lots are selling at as much as 10c per lb. The sales of the sales range from 8½ to 9½c.

Swine—There were ten car loads on the market this morning, which sold at from 9½c to 12,50—the lower figures for Michigan and grass fed hogs.

Tide-Water Receipts by the New York Canals.

The quantity of flour, wheat, corn and barley left at tidewater during the fourth week in July, in the years 1865 and 1866, was as follows:

	Flour.	Wheat.	Corn.
1865	20,500	271,800	611,800
1866	6,800	102,100	499,100
Dec.	13,500	Dec. 169,700	Inc. 287,300

The aggregate quantity of the same articles left at tidewater from the commencement of navigation to the last day of July, inclusive, during the years 1865 and 1866, was as follows:

	Flour.	Wheat.	Corn.
1865	292,300	3,435,200	5,535,100
1866	195,900	1,272,000	8,209,400
Dec.	176,400	Dec. 1,163,200	Inc. 2,674,300

By resuming the wheat to flour, the quantity of the latter left at tidewater this year, compared with the corresponding period last year, shows a decrease of 80,570 bbls flour.

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, August 11.—There is an increasing demand for money, but the supply continues superabundant, and there is no drain of currency from here. The domestic exchanges are in favor of this city, and money is flowing in. The demand from the stock exchange is readily at 4@5 per cent., and money of the Government bankers yet supplied at 3 per cent. The number of out-of-town buyers is steadily increasing, and the general trade of the city shows a slight improvement during the week just closed. The crops are abundant all over the country, and everything augurs well for a large fall trade, although it may be a little later than usual. The gold market finally closed strong at 143¾. There has been a good demand for Customs to-day, and rather more doing for speculation. Governments are quiet but steady. 5-20s, 1075; 10-40s, 99¾; July 7-30s, 105. Railway shares unchanged. There was very little business transacted, but all the sales were at full prices. Consolidated Gregory advanced 2½ per share and selling at 49, and Beuncheff Run rose to 7 on the report of a new well. Grinnell sold at 106, Wall Hill at 120, and Quartz Hill at 45.

The Commercial's money article says: The stock market continues unsettled. The rate of sales to realize have disturbed confidence in the upward course of prices to the embarrassment of the new holders, who find themselves saddled with stocks at high prices with a diminished disposition among outsiders to buy them, and but a short period before the money market, from National causes, is likely to show a firm tendency. This changed condition of affairs is likely to encourage short operating, and the current of the market is apparently taking that direction, a course welcome enough to the new holders, and which will receive considerable [illegible] by the hammering of leading shares, Erie continues firm, and appears to be destined to higher prices. Report has it that large purchases are being made preparatory to the annual election of directors. Governments are quiet. Money continues very abundant; application for call loans can be made most easily at 5 per cent. A large amount of money is offered to leading brokers at 4 per cent. Discounts remain quiet; there are, however, symptoms of a commencement of the rise in the supply of bills, which usually occur about this season. Exchanges with the West are at present in favor of this city, and small daily remittances of currency from that section are received by the banks.

Gold is at about the rates of yesterday. The demand for loans is moderately active; loans were made this morning at 2@5 per cent. but later 5 per cent. was paid. Total shipments for the week, $157,985.

The Post's money article says: The gold market is firm, and loans have been made at —2@— in favor of the lenders of coin. No change in the market. Stock market opened dull but firm. Governments inactive and a fraction lower. After the Board quotations for railway shares were New York Central, 1,05½; Erie, 69¾; Hudson River, 1,30; Michigan Central, 1,10; Illinois Central, 1,21½.

Baltimore Cattle Market.

BALTIMORE, August, 9.—The offerings during the past week were 710 head, against 647 head previous week. Prices to-day ranged as follows: Inferior cattle $5,50; common $6@6,75; fair $7@7,50; good $8@8,75; and prime at $9@9,25 per 100 lbs. A few cattle were sold on Tuesday at a shade better prices than the outside figures. The market this week as well as last was much lighter on Tuesday and Wednesday, than on regular sale day. The market closed to-day with a downward tendency, and we consider it a shade worse than last week.

Sheep—The supply in market has been moderate this week, but butchers having plenty on hand, the prices were scarcely as good as last week. Sales of a nice lot of Jefferson Co., (Va.,) Lambs were made at $4 00

Hogs—There was a great scarcity this week, and sales were readily made at $16,00 per 100 lbs net.

RIVER NEWS.

The river continues to recede steadily at this point, with but thirty inches in the channel by the pier marks last evening. The weather yesterday was cloudy and unsettled, and rained almost without cessation during the forenoon.

The Fleet City, Importer and W. A. Caldwell arrived since our last report. The last named boat has entered the Pittsburgh and Parkersburg trade, and she left on Saturday on her first trip. The Importer has been laid up for some time at the foot of Grass House, and the Forest City also, has been laid up at some point below for some weeks past.

Thus far none of the Cincinnati or St. Louis boats have made any demonstration towards loading, nor is it probable that they will, as the river is again falling.

The Cincinnati Commercial, of Saturday says:

It is our sad and melancholy duty to record the death of Alex. M. Davidson, of St. Louis, of cholera. The deceased was well-known as a steamboat clerk. He was formerly engaged in the Cincinnati and Memphis trade, but more recently in the St. Louis and New Orleans trade. He was in the boat St. Louis of Harry, Davidson & Co., yesterday morning about 9 o'clock, and complaining of ill-health, and a slight diarrhœa, went into his room at the Metropolitan Hotel. Mr. Dawson was called in, and pronounced his case cholera. He died last evening at 6:30 o'clock. The deceased was about twenty-nine years old, and formerly resided in Pittsburgh, but has made St. Louis his home for several years past. He was universally respected by all who knew him. He received every attention from his friends, Capt. Marsh Clark, Mrs. Alex. Hain, Dr. Meguire, and other friends. His brother was expected to arrive here this morning from Saint Louis.

Mr. M. R. Harry, who has been quite ill for several days past, we are happy to learn, is rapidly improving in health.

Capt. Sam. Wilson and Mr. Chas. H. Wilkins, clerk of the Lorena, arrived from Pittsburgh yesterday. The Lorena is loading for New Orleans.

We are pained to learn of the death of Jas. H. Dunlap, one of the clerks of the steamer Kenton, which occurred [illegible] on Wednesday evening, forty-eight hours after the boat left this port. Deceased was a brother of the commander of the boat, and bore an excellent character. His home was in Bridgewater, Pa. The Kenton is still lying at Carondelet, but will probably resume her trip in a day or two to the Ohio. We deeply sympathize with the relations of the deceased on their bereavement.

Jas. Murray, steward of the Berths, and eight years in employment of this popular Packet Company, died suddenly at this port yesterday morning. He leaves a family. The Amelia Poe and Mary Erwin are receiving freight for Cincinnati and way points.

The ill-fated General Lytle was in her third year and valued at some $9,000. No insurance can be recovered as she was not insured against accidents of boilers. She was a good boat for speed, having made the run from Cincinnati to Louisville in six hours twenty-one minutes, running time down stream.

The fine Maysville packet Bostona No 3, Captain Pres Lockwick, caught fire on Wednesday evening, August 1st, below Maysville, and the upsetting on deck of a coal oil lamp, and burned to the water's edge. No lives were lost. The report that a daughter of Martin Marshall, of Maysville, who lost, is not correct. The Bostona No. 3 was owned by David Gibson & Co., of this city, Captain Pres. Lodwick, and Messrs. Moore, of Portsmouth, and was valued at $40,000. She was insured in the following offices in this city, for $5,000 each: Buckeye, Magnolia, Central, Union, Western, Commercial, Eureka, Ohio Valley, Lafayette, Boatmen's and Hamilton, and in the Germania of Wheeling, for $10,000. The Emma Forsyth for Maysville yesterday in her place, in charge of the crew of the Bostona No. 3, excepting Captain Lodwick, who remains at home this week. The owners of the Bostona will immediately commence building another boat to take the place of the one burned, and which will be completed by [illegible] December. The heavy storm on Wednesday evening gave considerable trouble to the boats. The Pike Grove sprung a leak, and was obliged to run to Cairo. The Sam Cook took all of her passengers and cargo. The Pittsburgh left the wharf yesterday for the docks, where she will be fully repaired. The Queen City will also go on the docks for repairs. She leaves for Memphis. The Silver Cloud No. 2 will leave for New Orleans on Saturday at 12 m., in command of Capt. L. C. Swain, and she is followed by the Lorena, in command of Capt. Andy Robinson, Jr. We understand that a billiard tournament will take place at the Planter's Hotel Billiard Rooms on Saturday at 10 o'clock. There will be great excitement, as all the celebrated billiard players will be present. Jas. H. Dunlap, clerk of the steamer Kentucky, died with cholera at St. Louis on Wednesday.

SARSAPARILLA,

MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,

MANUFACTURERS OF

ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK

WITH

Protoxide of Iron,

Which has become so favorably known as a

Tonic and Restorative,

By Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.

The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN A COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME," presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination, and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfill perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are also manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Hale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of Medicinal effect and the pleasant, attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period without exciting any unfavorable symptoms, either constitutional influences are developed, and no repugnance, or disinclination to the syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, [illegible] Joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, [illegible] is given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better calculated to exterminate or drive off these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.

No preparation like it, or which approximates to it can be found.

Alterative, or Blood Purifier, has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entirely NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination, and has no correct resemblance to anything hitherto employed.

The opinion of medical men concerning it, the value, manner of use, etc., are given in circulars which can be had at the store of any and all druggists. For sale in Pittsburgh by R. E. SELLERS & CO., AND ALL DRUGGISTS.
